GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Greetings! May has very important events: We honor Mary on the 1st and all our mothers on the 8th. We celebrate our wonderful wives at the Wives' Appreciation event on the 15th. On our Sundays we will be celebrating the Ascension of our Lord, Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, and Corpus Christi. We will also be celebrating our fraternity and unity at our St Pius Corporate Communion on the 28th. On Memorial Day we honor those that have died for us in the armed forces. May is also a time of graduations – celebrating the closure of a successful chapter and looking forward to starting a new one. In that light, our council will be transitioning with officer elections at the June Business Meeting.

MAY your days be joyous and fulfilling. Please pray that all Catholic men are inspired to join us in the Knights of Columbus. Please pray that we are inspired to strive to be the best we can in pursuit of being what God wills us to be. MAY God be pleased with our offerings of all our works, prayers, joys, and sufferings. MAY we be filled with the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit and utilize them.

THANK YOU to our wives... you are a treasure and greatly appreciated always!

Vivat Jesus!

Lonnie Currie, Grand Knight

Family of the Month: Dennis and Kim Ternes

Knight of the Month: Mark Lukes

SPRING HIGHWAY CLEAN-UP

The Spring Highway Cleanup was held Sunday April 17th. We had great weather of 75 Degrees and sun shining brightly. With only 9 workers it took 1 ½ hours to pick-up 9 bags of trash. We met back at the hall for a snack and refreshments.

The volunteers included Bill Schaffer, Mark Lukes, Larry Block, Trevor Klima, John O'Shea, Louis Ries, Randy Pasker and Howard Schiffler. Thanks to everyone for volunteering, including my wife Tammy for making the snacks.
